Symposium “60 Years Vatican II: Theological reflections in intercontinental perspectives” at Pontificia Università Urbaniana on Monday, 3 October 2022.

In a few weeks, on Monday, 3 October 2022, we will celebrate our international Symposium 60 Years Vatican II: Theological reflections in intercontinental perspectives at the Aula Magna of Università Urbaniana.

The Symposium – organized by the international theological research project Vatican II – Legacy & Mandate – is dedicated to the commemoration of the 60 years since the opening of the Second Vatican Council and is rooted in the context of the manifold synodal processes taking place in the Church on local and global levels. This symposium will consider the groundbreaking legacy and mandate of Vatican II for the renewal of the Church in intercultural, intercontinental and global church perspectives.

We can count on the active participation of numerous renowned international colleagues and Vatican II researchers as speakers. The program promises diverse and important contributions to the current debate on new ways of faith, theology and Church in the light of synodality and out of the impulses of the Second Vatican Council.

For further information, please, see the flyer and program for the Symposium attached.

Apart from physical participation at the Aula Magna for your university, also digital participation will be possible. The event will be streamed via Zoom to all those who wish to participate digitally.
